Richard Koroscil

Chair, The Hamilton Chamber of Commerce

Topic: Jobs and Prosperity in Hamilton

Wednesday September 29th, 2010

Registration at 11:30 a.m. Lunch at 12 noon

The Waterfront Centre

Richard Koroscil is President and Chief Executive Officer for the John C Munro Hamilton International Airport. In June 2003 he joined the TradePort organization, a subsidiary of Vancouver Airport Services Ltd. (YVRAS), in the capacity of Vice-President of Operations and was appointed President and CEO in November 2003.

As President and CEO, Richard's foresight, vision and strategic approach induced the first Airport Summit in concert with municipal, federal and provincial government; and changed the aviation landscape with the launch of an aggressive award-winning airport branding campaign. His influential management style advances existing air carrier partnerships (commercial and cargo); forges innovative corporate and community collaborations and is central to the success of a myriad of breakthrough programs. Richard's distinguished career in Airport Management spans over 32 years in both the public and private sectors throughout Canada and internationally.

Richard sits on the boards of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce, Metrolinx, McMaster Institute of Transportation and Logistics, Theatre Aquarius, past SKAL International President in 2009, is the founding Chairman of Southern Ontario Gateway Council and is the 2010 Hamilton Chamber of Commerce Chair.

He also is an active member of the Jobs Prosperity Collective (JPC) Mayors Advisory Committee on Economic Development (EDAC), Co-chairs the Hamilton Immigration Partnership Council (HIPC), Airport Employment Growth District (AEGD) and the Hamilton Economic Summit Advisory Committee.

Richard is a graduate of Durham University/College in Aviation Management, a Chartered Director from McMaster University/Conference Board of Canada Directors College and studied Business Administration at the University of Windsor in Ontario.
